CELEBRATING JIMMY NEDERLANDER

James M. Nederlander “Jimmy,” Chairman of The Nederlander Organization, was the visionary theatrical impresario who built one of the largest private live entertainment companies in the world known for producing and presenting world-class entertainment.

Jimmy started working in the theatre at age 7 sweeping floors for his father, David Tobias (D.T.) Nederlander, in Detroit, Michigan. During a career that spanned over 70 years, Jimmy amassed a network of premier legitimate theatres including nine on Broadway: the Lena Horne, Gershwin, Lunt-Fontanne, Marquis, Minskoff, Nederlander, Neil Simon, Richard Rodgers, and the world famous Palace Theatre; in Los Angeles: The Pantages; in London: the Adelphi, Aldwych, and Dominion; and in Chicago: the Auditorium, Broadway Playhouse, Cadillac Palace, and CIBC Theatres, and the Oriental Theatre which in 2019 was renamed the James M. Nederlander Theatre in Jimmy’s honor.

He produced over one hundred acclaimed Broadway musicals and plays including Annie, Applause, La Cage aux Folles, Les Liaisons Dangereuses, Copenhagen, Me and My Girl, Nine, Noises Off, Peter Pan, Sweet Charity, The Life and Adventures of Nicholas Nickleby, The Will Rogers Follies, Woman of the Year, and many more.

“Generous,” “loyal” and “trusted” are just a few of the accolades his friends use to describe him. Jimmy was beloved by the industry and the recipient of many distinguished honors including an Honorary Doctorate of Fine Arts from the University of Connecticut (2014), the Exploring the Arts Foundation Award (2014), the United Nations Foundation Champion Award (2012), The Broadway League’s Schoenfeld Vision for Arts Education Award (2011), the New York Pop’s Man of the Year (2008), and the special Tony Award for Lifetime Achievement (2004). To mark the Nederlanders’ centennial in 2012, The New York Landmarks Conservancy proclaimed Jimmy to be a “Living Landmark.”

The National High School Musical Theatre Awards is called the Jimmy Awards in celebration of his career-long dedication to supporting young talent.

DEAR PAPA,

2026 JIMMY AWARDS® HOST

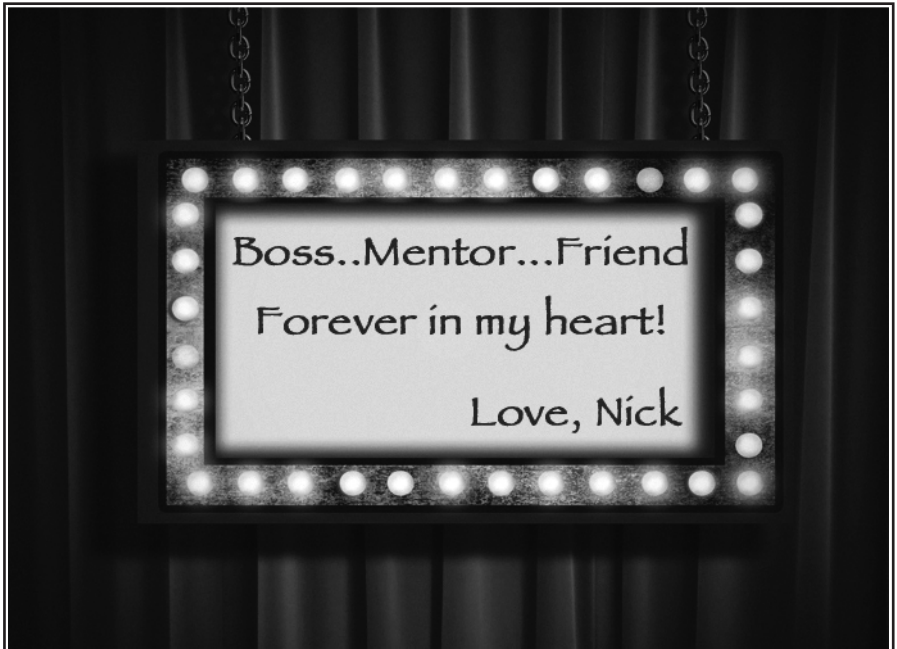

Bowen Yang is a five-time Emmy®-nominated comedian, actor and writer who has captivated audiences with his distinct wit and comedic style while breaking barriers across film, television and podcasting. He currently co-hosts the critically acclaimed podcast, Las Culturistas, alongside Matt Rogers. Yang and Rogers recently brought their Las Culturistas Culture Awards to television on Bravo on August 5, 2025. The 5th annual Awards ceremony returned to Bravo and Peacock on June 17, 2026. Las Culturistas was named Podcast of the Year at the iHeart Radio Podcast Awards in 2023 and 2025.

He was recently honored with the Vantage Award at the 2025 Academy Museum Gala, and more recently, received the Stephen F. Kolzak Award alongside Matt at the 2026 GLAAD Media Awards.

Yang starred in THE WEDDING BANQUET, Andrew Ahn's remake of the 1993 comedy, opposite Lily Gladstone, Kelly Marie Tran and Han Gi-Chan, which led to receiving the 'Actor in Film' Recognition Award at the 2026 Unforgettable Gala Awards. Yang starred in Universal Pictures' Academy® award-nominated film WICKED as "Pfannee" and reprised his role in WICKED: FOR GOOD. In 2026, Yang will lend his vocal talents as a voice in Warner Brothers' animated film THE CAT IN THE HAT.

As part of the main cast of SATURDAY NIGHT LIVE, Yang created memorable moments and characters throughout his seven seasons on the show. Joining the show as a writer in 2018 and becoming an on-air cast member in 2019, he has gone on to receive four Emmy® Award nominations for Outstanding Supporting Actor in a Comedy Series, making him the most-nominated Asian male performer in Emmy® history. He also received an Emmy® nomination for Outstanding Writing for a Variety Series in 2019, on behalf of SNL. Yang's last SNL show was on December 22, 2025 with a poetic send off from Ariana Grande and Cher.

ABOUT THE JIMMY AWARDS

The Jimmy Awards®/National High School Musical Theatre Awards® (NHSMTA) is a celebration of outstanding achievement in high school musical theatre, developed to elevate the profile of in-school arts education across the United States, provide educational scholarships, and create pathways connecting promising young performers to the professional theatre industry. Since 2009, the program has been the catalyst for more than $9 million in educational scholarships, and over 90 alumni have performed on Broadway and in National Tours. To qualify for the national program, students in local high school musicals are adjudicated and subsequently selected as representatives of regional awards competitions presented by Broadway League member touring venues across the country. Each year, more than 180,000 students participate in these events. The program was founded in 2009 by Pittsburgh CLO, Executive Producer Van Kaplan, and Nederlander Alliances LLC, President James L. Nederlander and Founding Executive Director Susan Lee. For more information, please visit JimmyAwards.com.

We acknowledge the systematic erasure of many indigenous nations and recognize those still among us, including the Lenape cultures, communities, elders past and present, as well as future generations.

A black and white illustration of a steampunk city at night. The city is filled with tall chimneys, industrial buildings, and glowing lights. In the foreground, a character with a top hat and a long coat sits on a stone chimney, looking out over the city. The sky is dark with some clouds.

Congratulations
